The "International academic conference in social-political sciences" Conference represents an opportunity for development and training research abilities used in the area of social-political sciences. This conference offers the opportunity to capitalize on the dissertation papers and the chapters of the doctoral theses, as they will be published in a volume of the conference at the publishing house of the "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iasi, a publishing house ranked in category A by CNCS. On this occasion, the PhD students from the first years, but also the master students will have the opportunity to get acquainted with the process of writing scientific papers, but also of publishing them. In order to develop critical thinking, but also the corpus of data, this conference encourages a multidisciplinary approach to the problems faced by our society in the XXI century. Papers from fields such as Philosophy, Social Work, Political Science, Sociology, Communication, etc. are accepted. This conference is a good opportunity for both first-year PhD students and masters' students to get acquainted with international publishing standards,
